

Knowledge base > Products > Required Password Change: new procedure for first time login > My devices are running software released in 2019, and my passwords are default. If I update my devices, will I have to change the password?

---

My devices are running software released in 2019, and my passwords are default. If I update my devices, will I have to change the password?

Christoph Strauss - 2024-09-19 - Required Password Change: new procedure for first time login

No. Only devices sold after 1st January 2020 are affected.