

Cannot downgrade my device to versions lower than 09.1.10

Christoph Strauss - 2024-03-28 - Classic Switches

Due to the discontinuation of components, we had to replace a flash memory component, which affects the software version that can run on these devices.

Affected products:

Please note that this notification is valid only for devices manufactured from 2024. If your device was manufactured before 2024, your device can be downgraded to any software version.
